

Being tougher than Federal Law is no excuse for overturning the NJ law. The Constitution allows the States to do as they wish for things not specifically given to the Federal Government.

Do not weaken the NJ law.